Authentic Real English: Ditto 同意

- Dan: Hello and welcome to another Authentic Real English from BBC Learning English. I'm Dan.
- Feifei: 大家好，我是冯菲菲。
- Dan: Feifei, I need a holiday.
- Feifei: Ditto.
- Dan: I'd love to go somewhere hot.
- Feifei: Ditto.
- Dan: But I can't get the time off work.
- Feifei: Ditto.
- Dan: Feifei, why do you keep saying ditto?
- Feifei: Because it's our Authentic Real English phrase this week. Ditto – it means me too or I agree. Ditto 这个词的意思是同意，或是同意某人的一个说法。
- Dan: Oh ditto. Ditto's a phrase you hear a lot in the UK. It's a good quick way of saying you agree with something.
- Feifei: But when I said ditto earlier, I wasn't agreeing that you needed a holiday. I was saying that I need a holiday.
- Dan: Yeah, ditto usually reflects the opinions or desires of the person saying it. Let's listen to an example.

Example

A: I'll have the mushroom pizza please.

B: Ditto; same for me.

- Dan: So the person saying ditto also wanted a mushroom pizza.
- Feifei: Ditto 这个词不仅仅可以用来表示你同意某人的看法，我们来听下面这个例子。

Example

A: Too many sweets can be bad for your teeth. Ditto chocolate and sugary drinks.

Dan: In the last phrase ditto meant the same; too many sweets can be bad for your teeth. And so can too much chocolate, or too many sugary drinks.

Example

A: Too many sweets can be bad for your teeth. Ditto chocolate and sugary drinks.

Dan: Right Feifei, I'm going to book a holiday.

Feifei: Ditto. Don't forget to check out bbcukchina.com for more Authentic Real English.

Dan: Bye!
