New 10Gbps link supercharges long-term EU-China research and education partnership

GÉANT and CERNET sign MoU to strengthen ICT collaboration at EU-China Summit in the presence of Chinese Vice Premier Liu Yandong and EC Commissioner Tibor Navracsics

15 September 2015 | Brussels, Belgium and Beijing, China

Over 80 million researchers, academics and students across Europe and China are set to benefit from a new 10Gbps research and education (R&E) internet link, formally inaugurated at the EU-China High Level People-to-People Dialogue (HPPD) Summit held today in Brussels and presided by Chinese Vice Premier Liu Yandong and EC Education Commissioner Tibor Navracsics.

The photograph shows two men in suits sitting at a table covered with a red cloth, signing a document. They are surrounded by other officials and flags of the European Union and China. A woman in a black jacket and patterned skirt is standing to the left, clapping. The background features a large painting and a blue banner with the GÉANT logo.
